About the Directors...

Sheryl Hertter-Sheryl is a senior music education major from Memphis. She is the Daughter of James and Nancy Hertter. She is the music composer as well as the director. She is also involved with the Marching and Jazz Bands. She is the president of Kä Re Tá and the local chapter of C-MENC. She is a member of the Harding Chorus and Kappa Delta Pi.

Chuck Roe-Chuck is a junior music education major and a drama minor. He and his wife, Kristy, are from Springtown, Texas. He is the son of Ken and Sandra Roe. Chuck wrote the script and lyrics and also serves as co-director and is playing the role of Sam Hunter. He sings with the Harding Chorus and Belles and Beaux. He is a member of ΔΧΔ and is a beau for Kä Re Tá. He is also in ACDA and Campus Players.

Marisa Thomas-Marisa is also a music education major from Irving, Texas. She is the daughter of Virgil and Wanda Thomas. She serves as one of the plays directors, the public relations co-ordinator, and will be playing the role of Robin Bently. She will be one of four 1991 Spring Sing Hostesses. She is a member of the Harding Chorus, ACDA, and C-MENC. She is the President of Campus Players and Vice-President of Alpha Psi. She is also a member of Regina social club. She will graduate in December 1991.
